The University.

1. HISTORY AND LOCATION.

The University of the South, Chartered in 1858, was founded as an institution of higher Christian Education in the South and Southwest.

The plan of its organization was the result of a careful study of the educational systems of the leading institutions of Europe and America, and the selection of those features in harmony with the requirements of the age and country. The civil war delayed the opening of the University, and swept away all its endowments save its domain of 10,000 acres.

The Grammar School was opened in 1868. The Academic and Theological Departments were soon after established, and these constitute the present University.

Since 1870 the growth has been rapid, and by maintaining the highest standards of scholarship and character as essential to membership, it has gained a wide reputation.

In selecting a site for the University, the Trustees had in view these requisites:

1. A place central and accessible to the various dioceses. 2. A section free from the malaria of the South and the pulmonary diseases of the North, where students could pursue their studies unhindered by disease. 3. A location where the University should build up its own society and surroundings, excluding inharmonious elements, and exempting its students from the temptations of city life.

Sewanee, the seat of the University, is reached by the Tracy City branch of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway, at a distance of eight miles from Cowan. Perhaps a more definite idea of the exact location of the University may be given to those who are not acquainted with it by saying that the great tunnel on the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway passes nearly under the University domain—eighty-seven miles south of Nashville by rail, twenty-five miles north of Stevenson, and sixty-five miles from Chattanooga.

The Post-office address is "SEWANEE, TENN." There is a money order and telegraph office at the station.

As it is about midway between the Ohio River and the Gulf, the Atlantic and the Mississippi, this entire region, with much beyond, is tributary to the University.

Concerning the healthfulness of the place, the "Report of the Tennessee State Board of Health," 1884, says: "The Cumberland Mountain Plateau peculiarly abounds in resorts which possess to the full every essential that nature is asked to supply. We name one, by way of illustration—Sewanee—which, as a type of health resorts, fulfills all the requirements of the tourist, the invalid and the seeker of rest and cool enjoyable surroundings. Here, right at the edge of the Mountain, and in the native woods, is the University of the South, with its classic halls, its grounds and walks and cottages, altogether a delightful health giving village, with a people whose refinement and courtesy make the visitor at home and attune him to enjoy to the utmost the pure air and grand scenery of the Mountain's margin."

II. ORGANIZATION AND GOVERNMENT.

The University of the South is under the sole and perpetual direction of the Protestant Episcopal Church, represented by a Board of Trustees.

The administrative head of the University is the VICE-CHANCELLOR. The educational interests of the University are controlled by the Hebdomadal Board, composed of the Professors, with the Vice-Chancellor as Chairman.

The general duties of Discipline and Police are entrusted to the Proctor. He is assisted by such students as, from their good conduct and gentlemanly bearing, are thought competent by the Vice-Chancellor. The discipline observed is directed chiefly to the maintenance of that good order and quiet necessary to study. Restraints are gradually removed and privileges gradually extended, according to the general standing of the student. Regular attention to all stated duties is absolutely required.

III. GENERAL CONDUCT.

INQUIRY AND ENTRY.

All letters of inquiry should be addressed to the Vice-Chancellor, Rev. Telfair Hodgson, D. D., Sewanee, Tenn. Information must be given in advance of intention to enter sons and wards, and a certificate of a good character from a responsible person is necessary.

DEPARTMENTS.

Two Departments are at present in operation—the Academic and the Theological. These are the outgrowth of a fully equipped and well organized Grammar School, which is still regarded as a competent feeder to the high culture of the undergraduate department. Certain details of conduct peculiar to each department will be found under their respective heads.

SCHOLASTIC YEAR.

The scholastic year consists of two terms of twenty weeks each, commencing respectively in August and March.

The vacation of twelve weeks commences in December and ends in March.

Commencement Day is the first Thursday in August, and Terms are dated from this point. In 1890, Commencement Day is August 7th.

LIBRARY, SOCIETIES AND CLUBS.

A good library of about twenty-four thousand volumes has been already secured, and is open to students at appointed hours. There are two Literary Societies—the Sigma Epsilon, and Pi Omega.

The Homiletic Society and the Bishop Boone Missionary Association belong to the Theological Department.

The A. T. Ω., Σ. A. E., K. Σ., Φ. Δ. Θ., Δ. T. Δ., K. A. and T. Δ. Σ. Fraternities have each a chapter at the University. Physical exercises are encouraged; there are two Base-ball Clubs, several Tennis Clubs, and a Foot-ball Club.

An Athletic Association has been organized for the purpose of encouraging field sports. There are two contests per annum, and medals are given as prizes.

GYMNASIUM.

The Gymnasium is equipped with well-selected apparatus, and is in charge of an experienced gymnast, who is always present to advise and direct the student. Every student is examined by the Health-officer, and such exercises prescribed as may best meet the wants of his physical condition.

HONORS.

The honors of the University consist of Prizes, Medals, Certificates, Diplomas and Degrees.

PRIZES.

Prizes of books are awarded on special examinations, duly announced. Medals are offered annually in Latin, Greek, French, German, Spanish and Elocution; the particulars are set forth under the several schools.

DIPLOMAS.

Diploma of graduation in any School is awarded to such students as, at the end of the scholastic year, shall have attained a satisfactory standard. But no Diploma may be conferred, in any case, until the candidate shall have passed a satisfactory examination in the English language.

CERTIFICATES.

Certificates of Proficiency are given in one of its branches where a school embraces several, or where less than a diploma is required for a degree, as, for example, in the degree of B. S., where Latin is prosecuted only through the intermediate class.

DEGREES.

The degrees conferred by the University on its graduates are stated below, with the requirements for each degree. They are adapted to the varied tastes and capacities of the student.

The Degree of Bachelor of Letters embraces nothing in mathematics beyond the Junior course, and avoids the domain of Science and Natural Philosophy.

The Degree of Bachelor of Science embraces only intermediate Latin, omitting Greek entirely, embracing instead a full course of mathematics with Political Science, History, Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy.

The Degree of Bachelor of Arts is adapted to those who have aptitude equally for Science and Letters.

The Degree of Civil Engineer is chiefly professional, though it combines in its branches the elements of an elevated practical education.

The Degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy, are Post-graduate degrees, and the requirements are stated below.

The requirements for graduation in the several Schools are stated under those Schools.

The Diplomas required for the several degrees are as follows:

Bachelor of Divinity (B. D.):

The conditions are stated under the Theological Department.

Bachelor of Letters (B. Lt.):

1. Moral Science.
2. Greek.
3. Latin.
4. English.
5. French.
6. German (Certificate).
7. Political Science and History.
8. Metaphysics.

(Students may elect whether to obtain a Diploma in German and Certificate in French.)

Bachelor of Arts (B. A.):

1. Greek.
2. Latin.

3. English.
4. French or German.
5. Mathematics.
6. Analytical Physics (Certificate).
7. Metaphysics.
8. Moral Science.
9. Chemistry (Certificate).
10. History (Certificate).

Master of Arts (M. A.)

The degree of Master of Arts (M. A.) may be conferred on such individuals as shall have passed the examination necessary for graduation in the Schools last above mentioned for the B. A. degree, and, in addition, shall exhibit Master's Diplomas in the following Schools:

1. Greek.
2. Latin.
3. English and History.

Any two of the following Schools may be substituted for one of these three Schools:

French.
German.
Spanish.
Moral Science.
Metaphysics.

Bachelor of Science (B. S.):

1. Mathematics.
2. Analytical Physics.
3. French or German.
4. Moral Science.
5. Geology and Mineralogy.
6. Latin (Certificate).
7. English (Certificate).
8. Metaphysics (Certificate).
9. Political Science and History,
   Chemistry (Certificate), or
   Chemistry, and Political Science and History (Certificate).

Master of Science (M. S.):

In addition to the Baccalaureate Diplomas required for the degree of B. S., the candidate must exhibit Master's Diplomas in the following:

1. Chemistry.
2. Geology and Mineralogy and Political Science and History.
3. Pure or Applied Mathematics.

Civil Engineer (C. E.):

1. Mathematics.
2. Analytical Physics.
3. Civil Engineering.
4. French, or German, or Spanish,
5. Geology and Mineralogy.
6. Moral Science.
7. English (Certificate).
8. Chemistry (Certificate).

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph. D.):

The degree of Doctor of Philosophy may be conferred upon any student who has obtained a Bachelor's Degree of B. A., B. Lt., or B. S., from this University. The Bachelor's Degrees from any other University may be accepted as an equivalent when the Faculty have been satisfied, by examination, that the course of studies for which he received his Bachelor's Degree is equivalent to that for which the Bachelor's Degree is given in this University. The Faculty will recommend for this degree of Doctor of Philosophy a candidate who, being thus qualified, shall reside at least two years at the University, and shall pursue during three years a course of study, embracing at least three subjects approved by the Faculty, and shall pass a thorough examination upon that course, showing in one of his subjects, special attainments. He shall also prepare a thesis on this subject, giving evidence of original investigation. This thesis must be presented at least two months before this degree may be conferred. The candidate must defend this thesis on examination before the entire Academic Faculty, and must be prepared to answer any question pertaining to the subject embraced in his course that may be propounded by members of said Faculty.

Honorary Degrees:

Honorary Degrees are conferred by the Board of Trustees. A register of all Degrees conferred is appended.

An estimate of expenses is given under each Department, and a full explanation will be seen at the end of this volume.

The Theological Department.

RESIDENCE AND EXPENSES.

The Theological Department occupies St. Luke's Memorial Hall, containing, besides Chapel and Lecture-rooms, accommodations for thirty-six students. Two students occupy in common a parlor with two bed-rooms attached. There is no charge for room-rent or tuition. The expenses of the student for board, washing, fuel and lights do not exceed one hundred and fifty dollars a year. Students furnish their own rooms, and pay to the Bursar five dollars and fifty cents a term for medical attendance and mail carriage. The Janitor's fee is one dollar a month, and is paid to the Bursar.

The scholastic year is the same as that of the other departments of the University. Classes begin in August.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR ENTRANCE.

Every candidate for admission must possess the literary qualifications required by "Canon II, sec. iv., and IV, sec. ii., as follows:

"If the postulant desires to be a Candidate for Priesthood as well as for the Diaconate, he must lay before the Bishop a satisfactory diploma, or other satisfactory evidence that he is a graduate in arts of some university or college in which the learned languages are duly studied; and if the Bishop be not fully satisfied of the sufficiency of such diploma, he may remit the same for consideration and advice to the Standing Committee of the Diocese. An examination of the literary qualifications of a Postulant or Candidate shall extend to his knowledge of the English language and literature, and at least the first principles and general outlines of logic, rhetoric, mental and moral philosophy, physics and history, and the Latin and Greek languages.

DRESS

Students are required to wear the scholastic Cap and Gown of the University, with the distinctive badge of this Department.

DIPLOMA.

At the Annual Commencement of the University, a Diploma of Graduation is conferred upon such students as have successfully passed the regular examinations and completed the course.

DEGREE.

The Degree of Bachelor of Divinity is for graduates of this Department only, and is intended to promote the highest standard of Theological preparation among its students. It is granted not before one year after graduation, and upon the following conditions:

1st. Sufficient literary qualification, to be determined in each case by the Faculty, the standard being that of the M. A. Degree of this University.

2nd. Such a performance of the regular three years' course of this Department as will come up to a maximum standard to be determined by the several Professors.

3rd. Satisfactory performance of such additional reading and work as may be assigned by the Professors.

4th. The concurrence of the Bishop of the Diocese to which the applicant belongs, after one year of practical work in the Ministry.

5th. Notice of application for the Degree must be given to the Faculty at the beginning of the second year of the regular course,

SOCIETIES.

The Bishop Boone Missionary Society was founded on Tuesday in Whitsun week, 1878.

Object.—"To cultivate among its members, and to strive to diffuse in the Church at large, a missionary spirit and zeal, and so, in the truest sense, to promote the cause of Christ. This object it hopes to secure—

"First, by obtaining all possible missionary information by such work as shall be assigned by the rules of the Society.

"Secondly, by corresponding with missionaries of the Church.

"Thirdly, by assisting missionary enterprises.

"Fourth and chiefly, by striving to realize and to teach the dentity of the Missionary Spirit with the Spirit of Christ, and by se'f-consecration to the same."

The St. Luke's Homiletic and Literary Society, founded on St. Luke's Day, October 18, 1879.

Object—"The promotion of personal piety and brotherly love among the Theological students, the cultivation of literary and æsthetic taste, the discussion of homiletic and theological subjects, and of all practical questions bearing upon the Ministry."

COURSE OF STUDIES.

OLD TESTAMENT LANGUAGE AND INTERPRETATION.

ACTING PROFESSOR DUBOSE.

First Year—The rudiments of the Hebrew Language are taught, and portions of the historical books read.

Second Year—Exegesis is begun, the Messianic passages and portions of the Psalms and Prophets being studied.

Third Year—The same studies continued, and in this as in previous years, lectures are given on various subjects pertaining to Introduction.

Students are required to become familiar with the contents of the Old Testament Scriptures, and in particular with the Sacred History, including the interbiblical period to the coming of our Lord.

Text Books—Hebrew Bible and Lexicon, Tregelles' Heads of Hebrew Grammar, Mitchell's Gesenius Hebrew Grammar.

NEW TESTAMENT EXEGESIS.

PROFESSOR DUBOSE.

Instruction in this Department is divided into three courses of one year each.

First Year—The Synoptical Gospels are studied in connection with the "Life of Christ."

Second Year—St. John's Gospel and Epistle to the Hebrews are studied.

Third Year—The Epistles of St. Paul are read in connection with a History of the Life and Labors of the Apostle.

Each year's course is accompanied with lectures upon various questions of Introduction, and throughout, weekly written exercises in Exegesis are required of all students.

Text and Reference Books—Westcott & Hort's Greek Testament, Gardiner's Harmony of the Gospels, Winer's Grammar, Robinson's Lexicon of the New Testament, Westcott's History of the Canon and Introduction to the Gospels, Horne's & Bleek's Introductions

ECCLESIASTICAL POLITY.

Professor Gailor.

This school embraces a study of the Nature, Constitution and Government of the Church as shown in Holy Scripture, and the writings of the Primitive Fathers, with especial reference to the Polity and Law of the Church in the United States.

Text and Reference Books—Potter's Church Government, Hooker's Ecclesiastical Polity, Bilson's Perpetual Government of the Church, Bingham's Christian Antiquities, and Henry's Compendium, Palmer's Treatise on the Church, Field's Book of the Church, Wilson's Church Identified, Haddan's Apostolical Succession, Percival's Apostolical Succession, Courayer on English Ordinations, Kip's Double Witness to the Church, Sadler's Church Doctrine Bible Truth, Chapin's Primitive Church, Hoffman's Law of the Church, Vinton's Manual Commentary on Canon Law, Fulton's Index Canonum, Richey's Churchman's Handbook, Wordsworth's Theophilus Anglicanus (Evans), Constitution and Digest of the Canons, Perry's Hand-Book of General Conventions.

ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY.

Professor Gailor.

The history of the Church is the History of its growth, doctrine, discipline, and worship, and includes a notice of the Jewish History and preparation for Christianity during the interval between the completion of the Old Testament Canon and the birth of our Lord. It is a continuous life, and, like the biography of an individual, is naturally divided into periods, of which three have been generally recognized—the first ending with Gregory the Great (590), and the second with the dawn of the Reformation (1517). The study of the third period relates especially to the History of the Church in England and America.

Instruction is given almost entirely by lectures, though Mahan, Robertson and Hardwick are used as texts.

Works for General Reference—Mosheim (Murdock), Gieseler (Davidson), Neander, Dollinger, Robertson's Church History, Dorner's Person of Christ, Hagenbach's History of Doctrines, Jarvis'

Introduction and Church of the Redeemed, Landon's Manual of Councils, Stanley's Holy Eastern Church, Hefele's Councils.

On the First Period—Smith's Old and New Testament Histories, Apostolic Fathers (Lightfoot, Jacobson, Cave, &c.), Greek Ecclesiastical Historians, viz: Eusebius, Socrates, Theodoret, Sozomen and Evagrius, Kaye's Tertullian, Fleury (translated by Newman), Mahan's Ecclesiastical History, Wordsworth's Church History, Newman's Historical Sketches, Salmon's Introduction to the N. T.

On the Second Period—Gibbon's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, Hallam's Middle Ages, Milman's Latin Christianity, Neale's Introduction to the History of the Holy Eastern Church and History or the Patriarchate of Alexandria, Bowden's Life of Gregory VII, Ranke's History of the Popes and Reformation, Maitland's Dark Ages, Bryce's Holy Roman Empire, Stephen's and Lawton's Histories of the Church of Scotland.

On the Third Period—Bede, Collier, Fuller, Hook's Lives of the Archbishops, Hardwick's, Fisher's and D'Aubinge's Histories of the Reformation, Churton's Early English Church, Blunt's Reformation of the Church of England (1514–1662), Short's History of the English Church, Hore's Eighteen Centuries of the Church in England, Jenning's Ecclesia Anglicana, Green's History of the English People, Perry's History of the English Church, Dixon's History of the English Reformation, Bishop White's Memoirs, Wilberforce's and Perry's Histories of the American Church, Anderson's History of the Colonial Church, Francis L. Hawk's Contributions to the History of the American Church.

HOMILETICS AND PASTORAL THEOLOGY.

Professor Clarke.

In the Trinity Term the studies of the Junior Class seek to make clear such fundamental questions as, What a Pastor Is? What are His Relations Towards God and Towards Man? What are His Motives, Responsibilities and Helps? What should be the Main Outline of His Continuous and Life-long Course of Study? and What is the Best Method of Preparation of Sermons, whether Unwritten or Written? Distinctly to understand these questions is of highest importance, as well for its influence upon the student's devotedness and zeal, as for the advantage of applying homiletic theory to immediate practice in sermon writing and in preaching during his Seminary life. Hence, these topics are placed at the beginning of the Junior Year, and, that they may be perfectly understood, they are taught in the threefold way of (a) the text book and recitations; (b), printed lectures selected by the Professor and read by the students in turn; and (c), the instructions of the Professor. Then, throughout the remainder of the three years, this knowledge is made use of, in the writing of sermons, and in extemporaneous speaking, for which the Homiletical Society of St. Luke's Hall and the Literary Societies of the University furnish the opportunity, at least once in every week.

In the Senior Year, the studies are upon the Administration of the Sacraments, the performance of the occasional offices of the Book of Common Prayer, and the practical detail of pastoral duty. Much attention is given to the reading of the Service, and in particular, to an accurate and intelligent reading of the Lessons from Holy Scripture. The regular course of study in this Department is supplemented by the able and instructive lectures of the Rt. Rev the Bishop of Louisiana.

Summer School of Theology.

A Summer School of Theology has been established at the University, the lectures extending over the month of August each year. The first session was held in August, 1889, and largely attended by Clergy from the Southern Dioceses. The names of the special lecturers were as follows:

Rt. Rev. A. A Watson, D. D., East Carolina.
Rev. Jno. J. Elmendorf, S. T. D.
Rev. J. S. Kedney, D. D.

In addition to these public lectures, regular Seminary courses were conducted by the Professors in the Theological Department.

Summer Course of Lectures

The summer of 1889 was marked by a most interesting course of lectures on "The Principles of Dramatic Construction," by Prof. Thomas R. Price, of Columbia College, New York. Dr. Price first devoted two lectures to the general principles which underlie dramatic construction, drawing his examples chiefly from the "Othello." He then gave an exhaustive analysis of the "Winter's Tale," a play which has hitherto proved a stumbling block to the critics. His fourth lecture was devoted to Lord Tennyson as a dramatic poet; his fifth and last lecture to Mr. Browning and Mr. Swinburne. The authorities of the University were gratified by the result of these lectures, as they not only excited a general interest on the part both of visitors and students, but also gave a great stimulus to the special work that is done in English by University classes.

It is purposed to make this Summer School of English a feature for the coming year. A distinguished scholar will be engaged to deliver a special course of lectures, and the Professor in English will conduct a class in the study of Eighteenth Century Poetry. Other members of the Faculty will aid in this English work, and will supplement the above mentioned courses by lectures on literary and scientific subjects.

The University feels that it made a move forward and in the right direction when it took advantage of its admirable summer climate, and established a summer course of lectures, at a time of the year when Professors and students of other institutions are at leisure and able to meet together for mutual profit and enjoyment. It trusts that the summer of 1890 will show further development in the same important direction.

Special Lectures in the Department of Ecclesiastical History for 1890.

It is expected that a series of public lectures on Ecclesiastical History will be delivered in St. Luke's Hall, July 1890, by the Rt. Rev. Hugh Miller Thompson, D. D., Bishop of Mississippi.

The Academic Department.

DISCIPLINE, GRADE AND COSTUME.

In the Academic Department, the Scholastic Cap and Gown (the wearers of which are known as "Gownsmen,") with the immunities they carry, are reserved for those students who in age, character and attainments show themselves to be real UNIVERSITY STUDENTS.

The other Academic students (called "Juniors") and the pupils of the Grammar School, with volunteer Gownsmen, are organized into a Battalion, which drills at such hours as do not interfere with study.

The Battalion dresses in a neat and durable uniform of gray cloth, which may be worn at all times, but is required only at drill and on Sunday. While military drill is thus provided by the Board of Trustees, the discipline of the University is, as directed by the Statutes, wholly Proctorial.

INSTRUCTION AND GRADUATION.

Students, with the advice of the Professors, elect such Schools as best meet the ends they have in view; but they must take at least three Schools, unless properly excused.

The conditions of entrance and the requirements for the Diplomas necessary to the various Degrees are stated under each School. Special students are admitted under proper restrictions.

SERVICES, ETC.

There are daily Morning and Evening Services in the University Chapel. On Sunday there is a sermon at Morning Prayer. Students are required to attend Morning Prayer during the week, and Evening Prayer also on Sunday. These services are brief, and with the full choir are made very attractive. The character of the services is especially controlled by the Bishops of the Board of Trustees. Instruction upon Sacred Subjects is given to students in all stages of their course.

EXPENSES.

The entire expenses of a student need not exceed an average of $360 per annum. Details will be found at the end of this volume.

THE SCHOOLS.

ANCIENT LANGUAGES AND LITERATURE.

PROFESSOR WIGGINS.

In Latin, candidates for the B. A. Degree are required to take three years of class work, with special courses of parallel private reading. The aim will be to give each student as wide a range of reading as possible in the literature of the different periods. Special attention will be paid to Latin composition, to reading Latin at sight, and to understanding Latin when read aloud.

If any student is unable to take the course of parallel reading, he may take additional courses of class work.

In Greek, candidates for the B. A. Degree are required to take three years of class work, with special courses of parallel private reading. The aim will be to give each student as wide a range of reading as possible in the literature of the different periods. Special attention will be paid to Greek composition, to reading Greek at sight, and to understanding Greek when read aloud.

If any student is unable to take the course of parallel reading, he may take additional courses of class work.

The following courses are offered for 1889—'90:

The work provided for subsequent years will be arranged on a similar scheme, although the authors will vary.

LATIN.

JUNIOR CLASS.

First Term—1. Livy XXI and XXII.
Private reading—Pliny, Select Letters.
2. Grammatical Forms, treated from the comparative standpoint.
3. Syntax, by lectures and recitation.

3. Prose composition.
4. Reading at sight.

For text or reference the following authorities are used:

Grammars—Goodwin, Curtius, Kuhner, Hadley, Krüger.

Histories—Cox, Fyffe, Curtius, Grote.

Literatures—Jebb, Jevons, Donaldson.

Geography—Ginn and Heath's Classical Atlas.

Composition—Boise, Sidgwick.

Lexicography, Liddell & Scott, Longe.

In both languages, Geography, Mythology, etc., are taught incidentally throughout the entire course.

M. A. Diplomas in Latin and Greek are conferred on candidates who have already received the B. A. Diplomas from this University, or some other University of recognized standing, and who in addition shall have spent at least one year in a special course of study. The course will embrace original work in authors duly announced.

The Kentucky Medal for Greek (founded by Bishop Dudley), and the Master's Medal for Latin (founded by Rev. Davis Sessums, M. A.), are awarded annually, and are open to undergraduates and Bachelors of Arts.

The examinations are based upon authors announced a year in advance, and include everything legitimately involved.

The authors for 1890 are:

In Greek, Aristoyhanes, Frogs.

In Latin. Horace, Satires and Epistles.

Prizes of books are given for the best work done in the Junior and Intermediate Classes of Latin.

MODERN LANGUAGES AND LITERATURE.

PROFESSOR PAGE.

INSTRUCTOR GUTHRIE.

This School regularly comprises—

I. French, its Literature, and the History of France.

II. German, its Literature, and the History of Germany.

III. Spanish, its Literature, and the History of Spain.

A three years' course in one of the three Languages is requisite for a Diploma leading to Degrees mentioned on pages 17-18-19.

For the M. A. Diploma special courses are provided in the above languages.

The University Course begins in Lent Term. Students are classed according to standing.

For admission into the Junior Class, students must have passed through the Preparatory Course or its equivalent.

The regular course for French, German and Spanish is divided as follows, each class embracing two Terms and meeting three times a week :

FRECNH.

JUNIOR CLASS.

First Term—Keetels' Collegiate Grammar, Pylodet's Littérature Contemporaine, Keetels' French Reader, Dictations and Exercises, First half Menzies' History of France.

Second Term—Second part Keetels' Grammar, Second part History of France, Historiettes Modernes
Examinations on full course at the end of Second Term.

This class prepares students for

INTERMEDIATE CLASS.

First Term—Waterloo (Erekman-Chatrain). Zaïre (Voltaire), Demogeot's Textes Classiques, studied and explained.
Keetels' Syntax.
Extra reading—"Cinq Mars."

Second Term—Picciola (Saintine).
Demogeot's Textes.
Dictations, Original Exercises in both Terms.
Reading out of Class—Jeune Homme Pauvre (Feuillet), Un Philosophe sous les Toits (Souvestre).

Examinations in the whole course and on the History of France used in the Junior Class.

First Term—Tartuffe, Demogeot's Textes Classiques (both Terms) Sacs et Parchemins. Harrison's Syntax, Aalnysis of Grammar and Origin of the French Language. Lectures.
Extra Reading—Voltaire's Dramas.

Second Term—Notes on French Literature, Athalie, Pylodet's Lit térature Classique, Historical Grammar Notes, French Versification.
Exercises, Translation and Dictations in both Terms.
Extra Reading—Jeune Homme Pauvre, and Roman d'un Homme brave (About).

For Graduation—Examination on whole course including History of France of the Junior Class.

GERMAN.

The scheme of the course in German is precisely the same as in French. Text Books are as follows:

JUNIOR CLASS.

First Term—Otto's Grammar, Boisen Reader, Noveletten Bibliotheke.
History of Germany (Menzies).

Second Term—Review Otto's Grammar, Undine, History of Germany.

INTERMEDIATE CLASS.

First Term—Maria Stuart, Soll und Haben (first volume), Whitney's Grammar.

Second Term—Wallenstein, Soll and Haben, Heine's Harz Reise (Kilborn edition), History of Germany of Junior Class.

SENIOR CLASS.

First Term—Whitney's Grammar, for Reference; Die Yungfrau von Orleans, Aus Meinem Leben (Gœthe),
Extra, Soll und Haben, Minna von Barnhelm.
Histor: Grammar Notes—

Second Term—Faust, Aus Meinem Leben, Torcuato Tasso, Grimm's Zwei Essays.
Literature Notes, History of Germany of Junior and Grammar Notes of First Term Senior required for full Graduation

As in French, the Examination at the end of Second Term of each class embraces whole course of that class.

SPANISH.

Scheme same as French and German, with but few changes.

JUNIOR CLASS.

First Term—Knapp's Grammar.
Knapp's Reader.

Second Term—Cabelloro Novelas, Harrison's History of Spain, Isla.

INTERMEDIATE CLASS.

First Term—Cervantes, History of Spain.
Practical course of reading and exercises.

Second Term—Modern Authors. Ochoa, Valera, etc.

SENIOR CLASS.

First Term—Spanish Classics. Cervantes, Lope de Vega, Calderon.

Second Term—Versification, Espronceda, Martinez de la Rosa, History and Literature.

Italian is taught when the number of applicants warrants the formation of a class.

For reference outside of regular Text books:

French—Brachet's, Bergman's Grammars, Brachet's Etymological Dictionary, Littré's Dictionary, Littré's Langue Française, Guizot's Synonymes, Havelacque Linguistique, Besant's French Humorists, Demogeot's, Gerusez, Nisard's French Literature, Kreutzner's Franchösische Metrik, Guizot's, Martin's Historical works, Atlas Hachette.

German—Grimm's Grammatik, Bopp's Vergleichende Grammatik, Sweet's, Carpenter's Anglo-Saxon Grammar, Grimm's

Deutsche Sprache, Klug Etymologisches Wörterbuch, Sander's Synonymen, Findel's Literatur, Kurz Literatur Geschichte, Gervinus Geschichte.

Spanish—Diez, Sismondi, Gily Zarate Tesoro del Teatro Español, Conde, Cancioneros Espanoles, Ochoa, etc.

Medals—The Texas Medal for Spanish (founded by Bishop Elliott), now donated by the Diocese of Western Texas, is awarded for special studies in the Spanish language.

The VanHoose Medal for German, (founded by Rev. J. A. Van Hoose, of Alabama).

The Ruggles-Wright Medal for French (founded by Mrs. Ruggles-Wright, of New Jersey), open to members of the University French Classes.

The Preparatory Medal, open to the members of Preparatory Classes in Modern Languages

METAPHYSICS.

PROFESSOR SHOUP.

The work in this School covers a period of two years. There are four courses of lectures, with parallel reading, embracing the subjects of Logic, Psychology, History of Philosophy, and Ontology. On alternate days, during the Trinity Term of each year, the lectures are on Logic to those beginning the course, and on the History of Philosophy to the more advanced class. During the Lent Term, the subjects of Psychology and Ontology alternate with each other.

Books of Reference—Hamilton's, Jevons', Mill's and Whateley's works on Logic; Lotze's Metaphysics, Kant's Critique of Pure Reason, Hegel's Logic, Schelling's Transcendental Idealism, Caird's Philosophy of Religion, Stallo's Concepts and Theories of Modern Physics, Hamilton's Lectures on Metaphysics, Mill's Examination of Hamilton's Philosophy, Cousin's History of Philosophy, Lewes' Biographical History of Philosophy, Ueberweg's History of Philosophy, Morrell's Modern Philosophy, etc.

SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.

PROFESSOR TRENT.

(a) ENGLISH AND AMERICAN LITERATURE.—The work of this class will cover four terms, as follows: 1st, Early English Literature; 2nd, Elizabethan Literature; 3rd, Eighteenth Century Literature; 4th, Modern Literature. The text-books will be: Macmillan's History of English Literature (4 vols.) so far as published; Ward's English Poets (4 vols.); Beers' Century of American Literature, and Arnold's Manual of English Literature. A full course of private reading will be required.

(b) RHETORIC.—This class will continue for two terms, and will use Genung's Practical Rhetoric, Genung's Handbook of Rhetorical Analysis, and Spencer's Philosophy of Style. Essays will be required, and it is hoped that the students will take up the course in English Literature before applying for admission to the class.

(c) ENGLISH LANGUAGE.—This course will be subject to private arrangement between the Professor and the class. Two terms are devoted to the work. Text books are: Sweet's Reader, Dr. Morris's Specimens of Early English, and others to be announced later.

SCHOOL OF HISTORICAL SCIENCE.

ACTING PROFESSOR TRENT.

(a) POLITICAL ENCONOMY.—The work of this class will cover two terms. Walker's Political Economy (brief course) and Ingram's History of Political Economy will be the text-books. Students are required to have passed the examinations set in general history before entering either this class or the class in Politics; but the Professor reserves the right of dispensing with this requirement.

(b) POLITICS.—This class will continue for two terms, and will use the following text-books: Bluntschli's Theory of the State and Pollock's History of Politics, (Trinity Term): Bagehot's English Constitution, Wilson's Congressional Government, Macy's Our Government, and Johnston's American Politics, (Lent Term.) The attention of students intending to study law is invited to this class.

(c) General History.—The work of this class will cover two terms. Questions of constitutional history are reserved, as a rule, for the class in Politics; and a little more of a survey of the main facts in the history of culture is attempted. The following text-books will form a basis for work: Keary's Dawn of History, Sayce's "Ancient Empires of the East," Cox's "General History of Greece," Abridgment of Mommsen, Abridgment of Gibbon, Bryce's "Holy Roman Empire," &c.

MORAL SCIENCE AND EVIDENCES OF CHRISTIANITY.

Professor DuBose.

The course required in this School for any one of the Bachelor's Degrees extends over one year. The instruction is almost exclusively by lectures, the students being examined frequently in writing upon all the important points discussed, and the aim being not only scientific but practical.

Moral Science occupies the Trinity Term and Evidences of Christianity the Lent Term. Lectures in each three times a week.

For the Master's Diploma an additional year's work is required, with Aristotle's Nichomachæan Ethics as the basis of the instruction.

Works principally used: In Moral Science—Aristotle's Ethics, Bishop Butler's Works, Stewart's Active and Moral Powers, Jouffroy's Ethics, Herbert Spencer's Data of Ethics, Janet's Ethics, Lotze's Practical Philosophy. In Evidences of Christianity—The usual works on Evidences, and especially Butler's Analogy.

PHYSICS.

Acting Professor Shoup.

This School embraces the subjects of Mechanics, Acoustics, Optics and Astronomy. It is expected that the student shall have accomplished a full course of pure Mathematics before entering it. The course is arranged to cover one year.

Text Books: Peck's Mechanics, Deschanel's Natural Philosophy, Young's Astronomy, Bartlett's Spherical Astronomy, Newcomb's Astronomy.

MATHEMATICS.

PROFESSOR KIRBY-SMITH.

This School embraces three classes, with daily recitations in each class.

The following is the order of studies, with a list of the text books:

JUNIOR CLASS.

Geometry of space and volume, embraced in Books VI, VII, and VIII; Modern Geometry, with Discussion of Transversals, at the discretion of the Professor; Trigonometry, Plane and Spherical.

INTERMEDIATE CLASS.

Descriptive Geometry; Discussion of the General Equation of the Second Degree; Nature and Theory of Logarithms; Theory of Equations, embracing Sturm's Theorem, etc.

SENIOR CLASS.

Analytical Geometry; Differential and Integral Calculus, with applications to Mathematics and Astronomy.

Text Books: Peck's Algebra; Wentworth's Algebra, Geometry and Trigonometry; Church's Descriptive Geometry; Wentworth's Analytical Geometry; Peck's Differential and Integral Calculus.

For admission into the Junior Class, the student is required to pass the examination of the fourth Form of the Grammar School, or its equivalent.

Advanced courses are recommended to competent undergraduates, candidates for Honors; adapted in each case to the work proposed for himself by the graduate.

CIVIL ENGINEERING.

PROFESSOR SHOUP.

It is expected that students shall have accomplished a full course of pure Mathematics, Mechanics, Acoustics and Optics, Astronomy, Chemistry, Mineralogy and Geology before entering this School. With good preparation in these subjects, the course of Civil Engineering proper can be fairly accomplished in one year.

During the First Term, instruction, theoretical and practical, is given in Shades, Shadows and Perspective, Land Surveying, Platting the Survey, Calculating the Content by methods of Triangulation and Latitude and Departure, in Laying out and Dividing up Land, etc.; upon the Construction of Roads and Railways, Location of Simple and Compound Curves, and problems relating to same; Turnouts; Leveling; Calculation of the Earth-work; Tracing of Contour Lines, etc.

The student is taught practically the adjustments and use of the Transit, Theodolite and Compass, and the methods of locating Tangents and Curves. Drawing is taught practically throughout the course.

Text Books—Searles' Field Book of Engineering, and Gillespie's Land Surveying.

Books of Reference—Trautwine on Railway Curves, Shunk on Railway Curves, Henck's Field Book for Engineers, Trautwine's Pocket Book for Engineers.

During the Second Term the study of the Properties of Building Materials is prosecuted; the Strength of Materials, Masonry, Framing, Stone and Wooden Bridges, Arches, etc.

Text Books—Wheeler's Civil Engineering, Rankine's Civil Engineering.

Upon passing satisfactory examinations the student is entitled to the diploma of C. E.

Examinations are given at the close of each term.

THEORETICAL AND EXPERIMENTAL CHEMISTRY.

PROFESSOR PIGGOT.

In this School of Chemistry the course of lectures and Laboratory work extend through five terms, the general subjects being divided as follows:

First Term—Chemical Physics (Heat, Light, Electricity, Magnetism).

Second Term—General Chemistry, with experimental work in Laboratory.

Third Term—General Chemistry continued, Chemical Philosophy, Qualitative Analysis.

Fourth Term—Organic Chemistry, Qualitative Analysis.

Fifth Term—Quantitative Analysis.

A course of lectures, explaining and amplifying the different subjects, is delivered each term. Recitations are required from the text and lectures.

The Laboratory work is under the constant personal supervision of the Professor, and every student is expected to understand and explain each experiment as he performs it.

Written examinations are given at the close of each term.

A final examination for the Diploma in Chemistry of the grade M. S., will be given twenty days before the close of either term.

Students will be required to give notice at the beginning of the term of their intention to apply for this examination at its close.

The examination for the Degree of B. A. will include Chemical Physics and General Chemistry.

For the Degree of C. E., in addition to requirements for B. A. one term in Qualitative Analysis.

The examination for the Degree of B. S. will include, besides the above, Qualitative Chemical Analysis and Organic Chemistry.

For the Degree of M. S. skill in Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis without regard to time, besides more advanced work on the entire subject.

In the lectures in this School are embraced all the latest advances in Chemical and Physical Science. Text books used during the courses are Gage's Elements of Physics, Remsen's Introduction to the Study of Chemistry, Remsen's Laboratory Manual, Remsen's Organic Chemistry, Remsen's Theoretical Chemistry, Beilstein's Qualitative Analysis, Fresenius' Quantitative Analysis, There are a number of larger works kept in the Laboratory for reference. As it is impossible to compress within a text book the subjects of the course, students are advised to use the following works for reference: Elements of Chemistry, Miller; Roscoe & Schorlemer's Text-book of Chemistry; Agricultural Chemistry, Johnson; A Manual of Qualitative Chemical Analysis, Fresenius; A Manual of Quantitative Chemical Analysis, Fresenius; Richter's General and Organic Chemistry.

GEOLOGY AND MINERALOGY.

ACTING PROFESSOR PIGGOT.

In the School of Geology and Mineralogy the course of instruction is continued through two terms. The first term is devoted to Physiographic, Lithological, Dynamical, and Historical Geology. The instruction is chiefly by lectures, illustrated by specimens and fossils from the entire series of Geological formations. The text used is Dana's Text Book of Geology.

The second Term is devoted chiefly to Crystallographic, Chemical and Descriptive Mineralogy.

The second Term of the course is open only to students who have completed the subjects of Chemical Physics and Inorganic Chemistry. A good collection of Minerals illustrates the instruction in this branch. Dana's Mineralogy is the text book used.

Graduation in both of the above courses entitles the student to a Diploma in the School of Geology and Mineralogy. Graduation in either one of the courses entitles the student to a Certificate of Proficiency in that course.

A certificate in the School of Botany will be required of students applying for the Diploma of Geology and Mineralogy.

Instruction in practical Geology in the field is given during the Trinity Term.

Students are advised to use the following works for reference:

Text Book of Geology, Geikie; Principles of Geology, Lyell; Elements of Geology, Lyell; Manual of Geology, Dana; Antiquity of Man, Lyell; Great Ice Age, Geikie; Climate and Time, Croll; Manual of Quantitative Chemical Analysis, Fresenius; Manual of Qualitative Chemical Analysis, Fresenius; Government and State Geological Reports.

BOTANY.

ACTING PROFESSOR KIRBY-SMITH.

The course of instruction extends through two terms. Students are received who have been prepared in the School of Chemistry.

Bastin's Elements of Botany with Gray's Manual and Structural and Systematic Botany are used as the guides to the course. Sach's Morphological and Physiological Botany and Lindley's Vegetable Kingdom should be in the hands of students for reference. The work of the Lent Term includes lectures on Vegetable Physiology, Laboratory work and the collection of an Herbarium.

COMMERCE AND TRADE.

INSTRUCTOR MCKELLAR.

This course includes lectures on Commercial Law and Banking; and practical instruction in Commercial Arithmetic and Book-keeping.

Books for study and reference: Towsend's Commercial Law, Smith's Mercantile Law, Vattel's Law of Nations, Blackstone's and Kent's Commentaries, Bouvier's Law Dictionary, Caruthers' History of a Law Suit, Code of Tennessee.

ELOCUTION.

The instruction seeks:

I. To train the Organs of Voice.
II. To impart an appropriate Delivery.
III. To cultivate taste in Reading.

There are constant exercises in Articulation and Gestures; and frequent practice is given in Declamation, Recitation and Reading.

Books for study and reference: Fenno's Elocution, Russel's Culture of Voice, Brooks' Manual of Reading and Elocution, and Sargent's Standard Speaker.

A Medal, founded by Bishop Lyman, of North Carolina, is offered as a prize for Declamation. Six competitors are appointed by the Faculty, and the annual contest is held on the evening of Friday preceding Commencement Day.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

SECOND LIEUT. W. P. STONE, U. S. Army, Commandant.

This Department is in charge of an officer of the army, detailed for the purpose by the President of the United States, and was established to give the younger students the benefit of the discipline and exercise of drill. Special efforts are made to give every boy an erect carriage and good bearing.

Gownsmen and special students are exempt from duty in this department, but all Juniors and Grammar School students must be provided with a uniform, and attend drill, unless excused by the Vice-Chancellor or Surgeon.

There are five drills per week—four of infantry and one of artillery. There is also a class for the instruction of officers and non-commissioned officers in tactics and military duties. Any student is allowed to attend this class.

The Cadets are organized into a battalion of three companies of from thirty to forty men each, and officered by Cadets selected from those distinguished for soldierly qualities and proficiency in drill and tactics.

OFFICERS.

Second Lieut. A. Y. Scott.....Mississippi

SEWANEE LIGHT ARTILLERY.

This is a volunteer battery, organized and managed by the students, but under the control of the authorities. The guns used are 3-in. field rifles, and are supplied by the United States. It drills in artillery once a week, and seeks to perfect its members in the school of the battery dismounted. The battery owns a complete camping outfit, and during the summer is allowed to go into camp at some convenient place, for four days.

OFFICERS.

Capt. S. J. Rose.....Kentucky
First Lieut. A. Y. Scott.....Mississippi
Second Lieut. F. L. Coyle.....Louisiana

D. H. Hamilton, Jr.,
First Lieut. and Cadet Adjutant.

The Grammar School.

Master.

JOHN GADSDEN, M. A.

Assistants.

W. B. NAUTS, M. A. W. B. HALL, M. A.

W. H. McKELLAR. E. H. ROWELL.

The course of studies for the Grammar School embraces such branches as are usually pursued by boys between the ages of twelve and sixteen.

Applicants for admission must be able to spell, read, and write, and be well grounded in Arithmetic as far as Decimals; they should also have some knowledge of Geography and History.

Grammar School Students looking to a University Degree, should specify such degree upon entrance, in order that their studies may receive the proper direction. Where no degree is indicated, the instruction aims to lay the best foundation for any general or special course in the University, or for business.

The instruction is preparatory to the Junior classes of the University; and in the higher classes of the Grammar School the methods of work and discipline accord with the University system. Over the younger students the authorities maintain a constant personal supervision.

Medals are awarded annually in the following Departments:

Church Catechism, founded by the Vice-Chancellor.

Old Testament History, founded by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of East Carolina.

New Testament History, founded by the Grammar School.

Latin, founded by the Rev. J. A. Van Hoose.

Greek, founded by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Louisiana.

Mathematics, founded by the Rev. R. E. Grubb.

Modern Languages, founded by Prof. F. M. Page.

Declamation, founded by the Grammar School.

In this Department, the Terms, Vacation, and Expenses are, at present, identical with those of the University.

A Literary Society, the Sigma Pi, and a Library selected with a special view to the younger students, are connected with the Grammar School.

The exercises of this Society are held weekly, and consist of Declamation, Original Essays, Reading and Debate.

Only Grammar School Students are eligible to membership; and they are elected by ballot.

SCHEDULE OF STUDIES.

ENGLISH.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE.—This branch occupies six terms—three years.

Text-Books:

First Term—Swinton's Word Book. "Graded Lessons in English," (Reed & Kellogg).

Second Term—Swinton's Word Book. "Graded Lessons in English" completed. Letter Writing.

Third Term—Swinton's Word Book. "Higher Lessons in English," (Reed & Kellogg). Short compositions.

Fourth Term—Dictation. "Higher Lessons in English" completed. Compositions weekly.

Fifth Term—Gilbert's Test Speller. Kellogg's Rhetoric. Compositions weekly.

Sixth Term—Gilbert's Test Speller. Kellogg's Rhetoric completed. Laws of Rhetoric applied in the writing of compositions.

HISTORY.—This branch occupies eight terms—four years.

Text-Books:

First Term—.....U. S. History.
Second Term—Montgomery's Leading Facts in Eng. His.
Third Term— " " " " " com.
" " — " " " in French His. begun.
Fourth Term— " " " " " com.
Fifth Term—Myers' Ancient History, 1st Part.
Sixth Term— " " " 2d Part.
Seventh Term " " Med. & Mod., 1st Part.
Eighth Term " " " " 2d Part.

GEOGRAPHY—This occupies three terms, with Physics in fourth term.

Text-Books:

First Term—Maury's Manual.
Second Term—Maury's Manual.
Third Term—Maury's Physical.
Fourth Term—Gage's Physics.

Exercises in writing continued through four terms at least.

MATHEMATICS.

VENABLE'S PRACTICAL ARITHMETIC.—The instruction in this branch occupies three terms, the work being distributed as follows:

First Term—Beginning with Common Fractions, as a review, and extending through Decimal Fractions.

Second Term—Beginning with Denominate Numbers, and extending through Interest.

Third Term—The completion of the text, together with a final review of the whole subject.

STODDARD'S MENTAL ARITHMETIC.—Students possessing a sufficient knowledge of Practical Arithmetic are thoroughly drilled in this important branch.

SHOUP'S ALGEBRA.—The instruction in this branch extends through two terms.

First Term—Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication and Division of Algebraic Quantities, Factoring, Involution and Evolution.

Second Term—The completion of the text, and solution of Equations selected from various sources.

WENTWORTH'S GEOMETRY.—Occupies but one term, and extends through the first five books.

COMMERCE AND TRADE.

Text-Books:

Crittenden's Commercial Arithmetic and Bryant's New Standard Elementary Book-keeping.

The former is taught in Lent Term of each year, the latter in Trinity Term.

ANCIENT LANGUAGES.

LATIN.—This branch occupies six terms—three years.

Text-Books:

First Term—Gildersleeve's Latin Primer.

Second Term—Gildersleeve's Latin Primer, Gildersleeve's Latin Exercise Book.

Third Term—Gildersleeve's Latin Grammar, Gildersleeve's Latin Exercise Book, Gildersleeve's Latin Reader.

Fourth Term—Gildersleeve's Latin Grammar, Gildersleeve's Latin Exercise Book, Gildersleeve's Latin Reader.

Fifth Term—Gildersleeve's Latin Grammar, Gildersleeve's Latin Exercise Book, Allen's Latin Reader.

Sixth Term—Gildersleeve's Latin Grammar, Gildersleeve's Latin Exercise Book, Virgil, Creighton's History of Rome.

GREEK.—This branch occupies six terms—three years.

First Term—Harkness' First Greek Book.

Second Term—Harkness' First Greek Book.

Third Term—Goodwin's Greek Grammar, White's Greek Lessons, Goodwin's Xenophon's Anabasis.

Fourth Term—Goodwin's Greek Grammar, White's Greek Lessons, Goodwin's Selections from Xenophon and Herodotus.

Fifth Term—Goodwin's Greek Grammar, Goodwin's Greek Reader, Sidgwick's First Greek Writer.

Sixth Term—Goodwin's Greek Grammar, Sidgwick's First Greek Writer, Goodwin's Greek Reader, Fyffe's History of Greece.

MODERN LANGUAGES.

FRENCH.—The course of instruction is continued through two terms.

First Term—Keetel's Elementary French Grammar.

Second Term—Keetel's Collegiate French Grammar.

GERMAN.—The course of instruction is continued through two terms.

First Term—Cook's Otto's German Grammar.

Second Term—Cook's Otto's German Grammar, Evans' Otto's German Reader.

SPANISH.—Preparatory instruction in Spanish is given by the Professor of Modern Languages in the University.

SACRED STUDIES.

Every student of the Grammar School is required to take this course.

Sacred Studies are taught both by lectures and text books.

The course extends through five terms.

First Term—The Church Catechism.

Second Term—Maclear's Manual of Old Testament History.

Third Term—Maclear's Manual of Old Testament History.

Fourth Term—Maclear's Manual of New Testament History.

Sixth Term—Maclear's Manual of New Testament History.

EXPENSES.

To avoid misunderstanding and ensure prompt attention, DIRECT COMMUNICATION should be had with the REV. TELFAIR HODGSON, D. D., Vice-Chancellor.

ACADEMIC EXPENSES.

Matriculation, paid on entrance	$15 00
Tuition each year		$100 00
Medical fee each year		10 00
Mail carriage each year		1 00
Total		$111 00

PERSONAL EXPENSES.

Board, including washing, mending and lights, a year		$210 00
Fuel		2 50
Cadet uniform	$29 00
Contingent deposit		40 00
Total		$252 50

Thus a student's expenses may be as follows:

Academic	$111 00
Personal	252 50
Total	$363 50
Cadet uniform	29 00
Total	$392 50

This may be somewhat reduced if he do not spend all of his contingent deposit, which deposit is intended to cover cost of books, etc.

Students desiring to take Gymnastics will be examined by the Health Officer and pay a fee of $5.00 a term.

The Academic charges are fixed and invariable. The personal expenses vary, and of these the above table gives only an estimate.

The list comprises the items usually paid through the Vice-Chancellor for members of the Academic Department and Grammar School. Theological students (who attend to their own personal expenses) have special rates; they pay to the Vice-Chancellor five dollars and fifty cents per term for Medical Fee and Mail Carriage.

The Academic charges are payable in advance for each term. Students are not admitted to any Examinations for the honors of the University until these dues are paid.

Matriculation is charged for the student's first term only.

Students leaving the University, except upon our own Health Officer's certificate of sickness, can make no demand for a return of any part of the University fees.

With regard to other items, the University acts only as agent. It is safe to send money for students' board by draft to the order of the Vice-Chancellor, otherwise the University assumes no responsibility in the matter. This also removes all possibility of such moneys being used by the student for other expenses than board.

The University makes special arrangements for the delivery of mail; and it is requested that all matter for students will be addressed to the "care of the University of the South."

The University has no Boarding Department. Students board in licensed houses, under the supervision of the authorities. Parents arrange through the Vice-Chancellor. Students bring one pair of blankets, three sheets, two pillow-cases, six napkins and six towels. The board month is twenty-eight days.

Cadet uniforms are furnished at tailor's rates. The uniform is an economical dress, and may be worn at all times. Ordinarily one suit per annum suffices for required use.

The Contingent Deposit is an estimate made for the convenience of parents and guardians who wish the University to look after the student's personal expenses, as books, medicine, repairing, etc. It is calculated for immediate necessities only, and no extraordinary items will be paid from it.

Full instruction should accompany all remittances for pocket money for the students. All remittances should be made to

TELFAIR HODGSON, D. D.,
Vice-Chancellor.

WHITTAKER'S CHURCHMAN'S ALMANAC.

THE

Protestant Episcopal

ALMANAC

AND

PAROCHIAL LIST

FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD

1890.

NEW YORK:
THOMAS WHITTAKER,
2 AND 3 BIBLE HOUSE.

PREFACE.

THE Centennial Convention has come and gone, and every day of it was fragrant with the spirit of unity and love ; it was a foretaste of millennial hours. We had intended to say a word—perhaps a sharp one—on "clerical changes," but we have imbibed something of the spirit of the Convention, and we "refrain even from good words." If the clergy seem to be always hearing a voice saying to them, "Move on ;" if the Office of Institution is practically disused, because for a mere temporary arrangement of a few weeks or months it would seem like a mockery, it is not because the clergy choose to have it so. They know the value of a home ; they believe, with Franklin, that three removals are equal to a fire ; they feel the loss of influence and power that comes of being always strangers to their people, and yet they "move on ;" the list of "clerical changes" is almost as formidable as the clergy list itself. They are an injury to people and to pastors, and they are fatal to the correctness of our annual roll. No pains or expense are spared ; to its perfect preparation nights and days of weary toil are given ; it is put complete into the printer's hands, and before the proof can be read it needs a complete revision. The changes come a score at a time ; in a year they run up to four figures ; and we can only approximate to that perfect accuracy at which the Protestant Episcopal Almanac for thirty-six years has always aimed. One of the popes determined to issue an edition of the Bible typographically perfect. The proof-sheets were sent over Europe to learned men, large rewards were offered for the discovery of any error. At last it was ready for the press ; it was published ; and behold ! there was a mistake on the title-page ! It is much so with an almanac. It deals with a myriad of facts and figures, with thousands upon thousands of names and addresses ; the information is painfully gathered from willing and unwilling secretaries of conventions and other officials, who should be no less interested than the publisher to see that accuracy is attained for their own sake and for the sake of the Church ; there are a thousand vexations and delays, but there is compensation in the result. The potter may often have a just pride in the work of his hands, and Mr. Whittaker has never had occasion to be ashamed of the Almanac which, far and wide and on both sides of the sea, has made for him thousands of friends. From a tiny volume it has become cyclopædic in information, and worthy of the study of all who are interested in the growth and prosperity of the American Church. It is in this confidence that the thirty-sixth volume of the Protestant Episcopal Almanac is sent forth to be the companion and friend of every clergyman and a welcome guest in every household ; it represents the lineaments of the Church they love, and records the history of her triumphal march.

Advent, 1889.

CHANGES IN THE PRAYER-BOOK.*

ADOPTED IN THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF 1889, FOR RATIFICATION BY THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF 1892.

I. IN THE TABLE OF LESSONS.

1. That the word "Proper" be inserted before the word "Lessons" in the heading of the Tables of Lessons for Sundays, for Holy Days, and for the forty days of Lent; and that "A Table of Proper Lessons" be inserted in the Table of Contents.

2. That in the Table of Proper Psalms, the 64th Psalm be substituted for the 69th Psalm for Good Friday Evening.

II. IN THE ORDER FOR DAILY MORNING AND EVENING PRAYER AND THE LITANY.

1. That in Evening Prayer between the response, "And grant us Thy salvation" and the versicle, "O God, make clean our hearts within us," there be inserted:

Minister. O Lord, save the State.
Answer. And mercifully hear us when we call upon Thee.
Minister. Endue Thy Ministers with righteousness.
Answer. And make Thy chosen people joyful.
Minister. O Lord, save Thy people.
Answer. And bless Thine inheritance.
Minister. Give peace in our time, O Lord.
Answer. For it is Thou, Lord, only, that makest us dwell in safety.

2. That in the fourth deprecation in the Litany there be added "earthquake," and "fire and flood," so that it shall read: "From fire and flood; from earthquake, lightning, and tempest; from plague, pestilence, and famine; from battle and murder, and from sudden death."

3. That the Prayer for All Conditions of Men and the General Thanksgiving, wherever they occur, be printed with the bracketed clause and marginal note, as now provided in Morning Prayer.

4. That the words, "Here endeth the Litany," be omitted.

III. IN THE PRAYERS AND THANKSGIVINGS UPON SEVERAL OCCASIONS.

A. That the following be added to the Prayers:

1. After the Prayer for those who are to be admitted to Holy Orders.

For Fruitful Seasons.

¶ To be used on Rogation-Sunday and the Rogation-Days.

Almighty God, Who hast blessed the earth that it should be fruitful and bring forth whatsoever is needful for the life of man, and hast commanded us to work with quietness, and eat our own bread, Bless the labors of the husbandman, and grant such seasonable weather that we may gather in the fruits of the earth, and ever rejoice in Thy goodness, to the praise of Thy Holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

---

*Copyright, 1889, by Charles L. Hutchins, Secretary of the House of Deputies. Reprinted by permission.

¶ Or this.

O gracious Father, who openest Thine hand and fillest all things living with plenteousness; We beseech Thee of Thine infinite goodness to hear us, who now make our prayers and supplications unto Thee. Remember not our sins, but Thy promises of mercy. Vouchsafe to bless the lands and multiply the harvests of the world. Let Thy breath go forth that it may renew the face of the earth. Show Thy loving-kindness, that our land may give her increase; and so fill us with good things that the poor and needy may give thanks unto Thy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

2. After the Prayer for a Person or Persons going to Sea.

For a Person, or Persons, on a Journey.

O Everlasting God, we commend to Thy Almighty protection, Thy servant for whom we pray. Defend him from the dangers of his journey, guard him from all sickness and hurt, preserve his going out and his coming in, and make him grateful for all Thy mercies; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

3. After the Prayer to be used at the Meetings of Convention.

For the Unity of God's People.

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace; Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly union and concord: that as there is but one Body and one Spirit, and one hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

4. After the preceding.

For Missions.

O God, Who hast made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on the face of the whole earth, and didst send Thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are far off and to them that are nigh; Grant that all men everywhere may seek after Thee and find Thee. Bring the nations into Thy fold, and add the heathen to Thine inheritance. And we pray Thee shortly to accomplish the number of Thine elect, and to hasten Thy kingdom; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

B. That the following be added to the Thanksgivings:

For a Child's Recovery from Sickness.

Almighty God and heavenly Father, we give Thee humble thanks for that Thou hast been graciously pleased to deliver from his bodily sickness the child in whose behalf we bless and praise Thy Name, in the presence of all Thy people. Grant, we beseech Thee, O gracious Father, that he, through Thy help, may both faithfully live in this world according to Thy will, and also may be partaker of everlasting glory in the life to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For a Safe Return from Voyage or Travel.

Most gracious Lord, Whose mercy is over all Thy works; We praise Thy holy Name that Thou hast been pleased to conduct in safety, through the perils of the great deep [or his way], this Thy servant, who now desireth to return thanks unto Thee in Thy holy Church. May he be duly sensible of Thy merciful providence towards him, and ever express his thankfulness by a holy trust in Thee, and obedience to Thy laws; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

And that the Thanksgiving for a Safe Return from Sea be omitted.

IV. A PENITENTIAL OFFICE.

That there be inserted in the Book of Common Prayer, after the Prayers and Thanksgivings upon several Occasions, A PENITENTIAL OFFICE FOR ASH WEDNESDAY, as in the Notification to the Dioceses (1883), pp. 67-70, except that, at the end, instead of the Benediction, the following be substituted :

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

O God, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive ; Receive our humble petitions, and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of Thy great mercy loose us ; for the honor of Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

The Lord bless and keep us. The Lord make His face to shine upon us, and be gracious unto us. The Lord lift up His countenance upon us, and give us peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

And that there be omitted from the Book of Common Prayer the second rubric after the Collect for Ash Wednesday, and the Prayers which follow it.

[This Penitential Office is to be read after the Prayer, " We humbly beseech Thee, O Father," in the Litany, and in place of what there followeth. It consists of the Miserere, versicles, and the prayers omitted as above.]

V. THE COLLECTS, EPISTLES, AND GOSPELS.

1. That, after the rubric following the general title, there be inserted :

¶ The Collect appointed for any Sunday or other Feast may be said at the Evening Service of the day before.

2. That the Gloria Patri be printed at the end of the Easter Anthems.

3. That in place of the rubric after the Gospel for the Sunday next before Advent, there be substituted :

¶ If there be more than twenty-five Sundays after Trinity, the services of some of those Sundays that were omitted after the Epiphany shall be taken in to supply so many as are here wanting. And if there be fewer than twenty-five Sundays, the over-plus shall be omitted.

4. That, after the Gospel for Christmas Day, there be inserted :

¶ If in any church the Holy Communion be twice celebrated on Christmas Day, the following Collect, Epistle, and Gospel may be used at the first Communion.

The Collect.

O God, Who makest us glad with the yearly remembrance of the birth of Thine only Son Jesus Christ ; Grant that as we joyfully receive Him for our Redeemer, so we may with sure confidence behold Him when He shall come to be our Judge, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle. Titus 2 : 11.

The grace of God that bringeth salvation. . . . Let no man despise thee.

The Gospel. St. Luke 2 : 1.

And it came to pass in those days . . . good will toward men.

5. That, after the Gospel for Easter Day, there be inserted :

¶ If in any church the Holy Communion be twice celebrated on Easter Day, the following Collect, Epistle, and Gospel may be used at the first Communion.

The Collect.

O God, who for our redemption didst give Thine only begotten Son to the death of the Cross, and by His glorious resurrection hast delivered us from the power of our enemy; Grant us so to die daily from sin, that we may evermore live with Him in the joy of His resurrection; through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. 5 . 6.

Know ye not that a little leaven . . . the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

The Gospel. St. Mark 16 : 1.

When the Sabbath was past . . . for they were afraid.

VI. IN THE ORDER FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE LORD'S SUPPER.

1. That in place of the rubric immediately before the Decalogue, finally adopted in 1886, the following be inserted :

¶ The Decalogue may be omitted, provided it be said once on each Sunday. But Note, that whenever it is omitted, the Minister shall say the Summary of the Law, beginning, Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith.

2. That, after the Summary of the Law, the following be inserted :

¶ Here, if the Decalogue hath been omitted, shall be said :

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

¶ Then the Minister may say,

[To be followed by "Let us pray," and the Collect for grace to keep the Commandments, as at present.]

3. Insert as the first of the Offertory Sentences, "Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive."

4. That in the Prayer of Consecration, instead of the words, "that He may dwell in them and they in Him," there be substituted, "that He may dwell in us and we in Him."

5. That in the second rubric after the Prayer of Consecration there be inserted :

And sufficient opportunity shall be given to those present to communicate.

VII. IN THE BAPTISMAL OFFICES.

1. That, instead of the question in the several Offices for the Ministration of Baptism, "Dost thou believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith, as contained in the Apostles' Creed?" with its answer, there be substituted the following :

Minister. Dost thou believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth ?
And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord ? And that He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary : that He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried : that He descended into hell, and the third day rose again from the dead : that He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty : and that from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead ?
And dost thou believe in the Holy Ghost: the Holy Catholic Church : the Communion of Saints : the forgiveness of sins : the Resurrection of the body : and the Life everlasting ?
Answer. All this I steadfastly believe.

2. That the Thanksgiving after the Lord's Prayer in the Office of Adult Baptism, be the same as in the Office of Public Baptism of Infants, the word "infant" being changed to "Thy servants," and the other italicized words being changed to the plural number, and a like change of words be made in the other Prayers of that service.

3. That, in the second rubric at the end of the Office of Adult Baptism, for the word "performed," there be substituted the word "administered;" and that there be added to the rubric these words:

And in case of great necessity, the Minister may begin with the questions addressed to the candidate and end with the thanksgiving following the baptism.

4. That the following be placed as an additional rubric at the end of the office of Adult Baptism:

¶ If there be reasonable doubt concerning the baptism of any person, he may be baptized in the manner herein appointed; saying that, at the immersion or the pouring of water, the Minister shall use this form of words:

If thou art not already baptized, N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

VIII. IN THE ORDER OF CONFIRMATION.

1. That, after the Preface and the Presentation of the Candidates, there be inserted:

¶ Then the Bishop, or some Minister appointed by him, may say,

Hear the words of the Evangelist Saint Luke, in the eighth Chapter of the Book of the Acts of the Apostles.

When the Apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the Word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John; who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: (for as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus). Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

IX. IN THE SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY.

1. That, between the word "which" and the words "is commanded" in the Exhortation, there be inserted:

—is an honorable estate, instituted of God in the time of man's innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that is betwixt Christ and His Church; which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with His presence and first miracle that He wrought in Cana of Galilee, and—

2. That the following be added to the Form of Solemnization of Matrimony:

¶ If the Holy Communion be celebrated at the time of the Marriage, immediately after the Blessing shall be sung or said this Psalm following.

Psalm cxxviii. Beati omnes.

[The Psalm to be printed in full, with the Gloria Patri.]

¶ Then shall be said the service for the Holy Communion, with the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel here following.

The Collect.

Almighty and merciful God, Who by Thy power didst create our first parents, and by Thy consecration didst knit them together in holy wedlock; Vouchsafe to send Thy blessing upon all those who are joined together in Thy holy Name, and so fill them with Thy grace, that obeying Thy will, and continuing always in safety under Thy protection, they may abide in Thy love unto their lives' end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Eph. 5 : 22.

Wives, submit yourselves . . . that she reverence her husband.

The Gospel. St. John 2 : 1.

And the third day there was a marriage . . . and His disciples believed on Him.

X. IN THE VISITATION OF THE SICK.

1. That the following prayer be inserted after the Prayer for a Sick Child :

A Prayer for Patience under Suffering.

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy, but first He suffered pain, and entered not into glory before He was crucified ; Mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the Cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2. That the Commendatory Prayer be changed by the omission of the words : "And teach us who survive, in this, and other like daily spectacles of mortality . . . bring us to life everlasting."

XI. IN THE COMMUNION OF THE SICK.

That, between the second and the third of the rubrics after the Gospel, there be inserted :

¶ In the times of contagious sickness or disease, or when extreme weakness renders it expedient, the following form shall suffice :

The Confession and the Absolution ; "Lift up your hearts," etc., through the Sanctus ; The Prayer of Consecration, ending with these words, "partakers of His most blessed Body and Blood ;" The Communion ; The Lord's Prayer ; The Blessing.

XII. IN THE ORDER FOR THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

1. That, after the opening sentences, there be inserted :

¶ And he may add :

Jesus called them unto Him, and said, "Suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not : for of such is the kingdom of God." St. Luke 18 : 16.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more ; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters ; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. Rev. 7 : 16, 17.

2. That, in place of the rubric and Anthem after the sentences, there be substituted the following rubric, followed by the present selections from the 39th and the 90th Psalms separately, with the Gloria Patri at the end of each :

¶ After they are come into the church, shall be said or sung one or both of the selections following, taken from the 39th and 90th Psalms.

3. That in place of the rubric, "Then the Minister shall say the Lord's Prayer," there be substituted :

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

[And then the Lord's Prayer and what follows.]

4. That at the end of the office, after "The Grace of our Lord," etc., there be added :

Additional Prayers.

Most merciful Father, who hast been pleased to take unto Thyself the soul of this Thy servant [or, this child] : Grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that having served Thee with constancy on earth, we may be joined hereafter with Thy blessed saints in glory everlasting ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who by Thy death didst take away the sting of death ; Grant unto us Thy servants so to follow in faith where Thou hast led the way, that we may at length fall asleep peacefully in Thee, and awake up after Thy likeness ; through Thy mercy, who livest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

Almighty and ever-living God, we yield unto Thee most high praise and hearty thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all Thy saints, who have been the choice vessels of Thy grace and the lights of the world in their several generations ; most humbly beseeching Thee to give us grace so to follow the example of their steadfastness in Thy faith and obedience to Thy holy commandments, that at the day of the general resurrection, we, with all those who are of the mystical Body of Thy Son, may be set on His right hand, and hear that His most joyful voice : Come, ye blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

5. That, at the end of the Office for the Burial of the Dead, there be added :

AT THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD AT SEA.

¶ The same office may be used ; but in the Sentence of Committal, the Minister shall say : We therefore commit his body to the deep, looking for the general resurrection, in the last day . . . when the sea shall give up her dead, etc.

And that the corresponding paragraph be omitted at the end of Forms of Prayer to be used at Sea.

XIII. IN THE FORM OF PRAYER AND THANKSGIVING.

1. That the Anthem be conformed to the Prayer-Book version of the Psalter ; that there be inserted, for the fourth verse of the Anthem, the seventh verse of Psalm cxlvii.; and that the Gloria Patri be printed at the end of the Anthem ; as follows :

O praise the Lord, for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our God ; yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thankful.
The Lord doth build up Jerusalem, and gather together the outcasts of Israel.
He healeth those that are broken in heart, and giveth medicine to heal their sickness.
O sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving ; sing praises upon the harp unto our God :
Who covereth the heaven with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth ; and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the use of men :
Who giveth fodder unto the cattle, and feedeth the young ravens that call upon Him.
Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem ; praise thy God, O Sion.
For He hath made fast the bars of thy gates, and hath blessed thy children within thee.
He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost ;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

2. That the special Thanksgiving be changed to read as follows :

Most gracious God, by Whose knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew ; We yield Thee unfeigned thanks and praise for the return of seed-time and harvest, for the increase of the ground and the gathering in of the fruits thereof, and for all the other blessings of Thy merciful providence bestowed upon this nation and people. And, we beseech Thee, give us a just sense of these great mercies ; such as may appear in our lives by an humble, holy, and obedient walking before Thee all our days ; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to Whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all glory and honor, world without end. Amen

XIV. IN THE PSALTER, ETC.

1. That the "Selections of Psalms for Holy Days," which immediately precede the Psalter, be omitted.
2. That, in the Psalter, the numbers of the Psalms be printed in common numerals, and that the verses of Psalm 119 be numbered continuously.
3. That the Canticles and the Psalms be in every case printed with the musical colon, as in the English book.

XV. IN THE ORDINAL.

That the Ordinal be amended, as follows:

(a) That, in the first rubric of each of the three services, the words "after Morning Prayer is ended" be omitted.

(b) That, in the Ordering of Priests, in the rubric following "Take thou Authority to preach the Word of God," etc., after the words "When this be done," there be inserted, "the Nicene Creed shall be said, and——"

(c) That, in the Consecration of Bishops, the opening words of the rubric following the Gospel be changed to read thus:

¶ Then shall follow the Nicene Creed, and after that the Sermon; which being ended, the Elected Bishop—

(d) That, in the Consecration of Bishops, the longer paraphrase of the Veni Creator Spiritus be omitted, and that, in place of the rubric "Or this," there be inserted:

¶ Or else the longer paraphrase of the same Hymn, as in The Ordering of Priests.

(e) That in the printing of the Litany and Order of the Holy Communion in the Ordinal such changes shall be made as have been made elsewhere in those offices.

XVI. IN THE CONSECRATION OF A CHURCH OR CHAPEL.

1. That the Gloria Patri be printed at the end of Psalm xxiv.
2. That, in the first prayer, the words "the performance of" be omitted.
3. That, in place of the four rubrics after the Gospel, there be inserted:

¶ For the last Collect, immediately before the final Blessing, the Bishop shall say this Prayer.

4. That, in the last prayer before the Benediction, in place of what follows the words, "the saints upon the earth," there be substituted:

Grant, we beseech Thee, that in this place now set apart to Thy service, Thy Holy Name may be worshipped in truth and purity through all generations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Note.—To ascertain any day of the week in any year of the present century, first look in the table of years for the year required, and under the months are figures which refer to the corresponding figures at the head of the columns of days below. For example: To know what day of the week May 4 will be on in the year 1878, in the table of years look for 1878, and in a parallel line under May is figure 4, which directs to column 4, in which it will be seen that May 4 falls on Sunday.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

LETTERS, and all written matter prepaid by stamps, 2 cts. each oz. or fraction thereof, to all parts of the United States; forwarded to another post-office without charge, on request of the person addressed before delivery; if not called for, returned to the writer free, if indorsed with that request; also postal cards. If the stamp is omitted, the letter is forwarded to the Dead-letter Office to be returned to the writer, unless the envelope gives his address. For registering letters 10 cts. additional. Drop or local letters, 1 ct. each oz. prepaid; 2 cts. in cities with carriers. Government Postal Cards, 1 ct. each; if anything except address is pasted on a postal card, letter postage is charged. For 10 cts. additional, immediate delivery of any letter by messenger, if received between 7 A.M. and midnight, in any place with 4,000 or more inhabitants or specially designated for the purpose.

Second-class matter: Postage on all newspapers and periodicals sent to any part of the United States to regular subscribers must be prepaid at the office of mailing. Transient second-class matter 1 ct. each 4 oz., or part.

Third-class matter: On books, unsealed publications for advertising purposes, or at nominal rates, circulars, proof-sheets with copy, commercial blanks, photos, etc., the postage is 1 ct. for every 2 oz., or fractional part. They must contain no written information beyond the marking of an article or the name of the person sending them.

Fourth-class matter: On all blank cards or envelopes, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, drawings, samples of merchandise, etc., the postage is 1 ct. for each oz. The sender of any article of third or fourth class may write his name or address within or on the outside, with the word "from," or may write or print on any package the number and names of the articles inclosed. The weight of any article of these classes, a single book excepted, is limited to 4 pounds, and it must be so wrapped that the contents may be examined without mutilating the wrapper.

Dangerous liquids, poisons, explosive or inflammable matter, indecencies, lottery and false pretence matters, are excluded from the mails.

MONEY can be sent with safety through the principal post-offices of the United States by buying "P. O. Money Orders:" fees, for $10 or less, 8 cts.; $10 to $15, 10 cts.; $15 to $30, 15 cts.; $30 to $40, 20 cts.; $40 to $50, 25 cts.; $50 to $60, 30 cts.; $60 to $70, 35 cts.; $70 to $80, 40 cts.; $80 to $100, 45 cts. None supplied over $100.

TO CANADA AND BRITISH NORTH AMERICAN STATES, letters, postals, and papers, in general, as if a part of the United States; must be prepaid. To Newfoundland, 5 cts.; postals 2 cts.; newspapers, 1 ct. for 2 oz. or less.

FOREIGN POSTAGE.—Almost all the countries reached by mails are now in the Postal Union; and the uniform rate of postage to all is for prepaid letters 5 cts. per ½ oz. Unpaid 10 cts. Postal cards 2 cts. Newspapers, not over 2 oz., 1 ct. Books, other printed matter, patterns, legal documents, photographs, etc., 1 ct. for each 2 oz. Registration fee on all correspondence 10 cts.

All registered articles must be prepaid. Newspapers, and other printed papers, and all matter of the second, third, and fourth classes, should be prepaid; unless at least partly prepaid, will not be forwarded.

Gold and silver money, jewels and precious stones, and any other articles whatever liable to customs duties, are excluded from foreign mails. To the following, postage must be prepaid: To Bolivia, 17 cts.; Sandwich Islands, 5 cts.; to Costa Rica, 5 cts.

Postal Notes.—These can be bought like postage stamps at any "money order" post-office, for any sum less than $5. A charge of three cents is made, and the note is payable to bearer at any time within three months, at the money order office designated.

Ratio of Communicants

TO THE POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES IN FIVE DECADES.

	Population.	Communicants.	Ratio.
1830	12,867,000	30,939	1-416
1840	17,069,500	55 427	1-308
1850	23,347,884	79,987	1-292
1860	31,412,960	146,600	1-214
1870	38,555,983	220,000	1-175
1880	50,152,866	344,789	1-151

Massachusetts and New-Jersey, with less than 3,000,000 population, have more communicants than the Church had in the 12,866,000 of the United States in 1830.

In 1850 the population of the United States was 23,847,884, and there were only 79,987 communicants. To-day the State of New-York, with only 5,000,000 population, has 83,000 communicants.

The Protestant Episcopal Church

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

THIS Church consists now of fifty-one Dioceses and fifteen Missionary Districts, under the care of Bishops, using the same Liturgy, and yielding obedience to the Constitution and the Canons enacted in General Convention.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

The American Church meets triennially in General Convention, which is composed of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies. All Diocesan and Missionary Bishops are entitled to seats in the House of Bishops. The House of Deputies consists of four Clergymen and four Laymen from each Diocese. No alteration can be made in the Constitution, or in the Liturgy, or Offices of the Church, unless the same has been proposed in one General Convention, and made known to the Conventions of every Diocese, and adopted at the ensuing General Convention.

Presiding Bishop.—The Rt. Rev. John Williams, D.D., LL.D., Middletown. Ct.

Chairman of the House of Bishops.—The Rt. Rev. H. A. Neely, D.D., Portland, Me.

Secretary of the House of Bishops.—The Rev. William Tatlock, D.D., Stamford, Ct.

Assistant Secretaries.—The Rev. George Francis Nelson, New-York; the Rev. T. R. Harris, D.D., New-York.

President of the House of Deputies.—The Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., D.C.L., New-York.

Secretary of the House of Deputies.—The Rev. Chas. L. Hutchins, D.D., Concord, Mass.

Assistant Secretaries.—The Rev. H. Anstice, D.D., Rochester, N. Y.; the Rev. E. W. Worthington, Cleveland, O.; the Rev. C. M. Davis, St. Louis, Mo.; the Rev. W. C. Prout, Granville, N. Y.

Treasurer.—Buchanan Winthrop, 45 Pine St., New-York.

Registrar.—The Rev. J. Livingston Reese, D.D., Albany, N. Y.

Custodian of the Standard Bible.—The Rev. Jesse A. Spencer, D.D., New-York.

Custodian of the Standard Prayer-Book.—The Rev. Samuel Hart, D.D., Hartford, Ct.

Historiographer of the Church.—The Bishop of Iowa.

The next Triennial Convention will be held in the City of Baltimore, on the first Wednesday in October, 1892.
